Minutes

- Welcome.
  - Scott did the finishing work on the bulletin board. Looks nice!
  - No Treasurer's report this month — Debbie has a cold. Scott and Suzie have receipts from the painting and will drop them by Debbie's house.
  - Winterfest is set for January 26th, from 10:00 -12:00. We have crafts with a winter-snow theme. Snow flake book marks. Paper plate snowmen, little snowmen beads, snow meters with paint stirrs. Laura has made fliers, and will post them in places around the neighborhood. Steve will post on Hills & Heights. Birds will be there maybe, but Shirley Tellfson had a hip replacement. Iffy.
  - Author's Night. Dark Enough to See the Stars in the Jamestown Sky, Connie Lapallo. February 27th. Will bring books to sign. There is also Stacey Hawkins Adams, a motivational speaker, but she charges $200 for appearances, and the group is not interested. Albert will investigate a better second option.
  - Steve contacted Hills and Heights about having them host our groups' content. Got a positive response from Bill Wade, but nothing since. He will try contacting again.
  - Clay. A busy couple of months! Rita Johnson (Miss Rochelle) will do a Harlem Renaissance program for 3-5 year olds on January 28th. 1st film within the next month, The Spook Who Sat By the Door. Also looking at documentaries on the Black Panther Party, and Classified X, by Mario van Peebles for late in February. Michael Paul Williams, might be willing to come and speak, Alberta will approach him. Longer hours on Mondays and Wednesdays, to 8:00, so he can show feature length films. Start at 7:00, run as long as needed.
- Temporary computer furniture is here. Computers are old, supposed to be replaced with City of the Future, but hard to keep them going. Laura will approach Harriet.
- Books for Soldiers, Clay has shipped 160 books and a handful of DVDs. Has a few more to ship, but going to look at the funds first.
- Next meeting, February 2nd at 9:00 am at the library.
