Minutes

- Yuri's Night. Thanks to everyone. Lower attendance than last year, but a lot of fun.
- Staff appreciation. Much appreciated! Nice spread of food and drinks. National Library Week, tie-in made it easy to remember.
- Treasurer's report. Net is $5,827.30. Outlays included the gift for Shirley, reimbursing Peg for the compost, and Laura for Yuri's Night expenses.
- Summer Reading. June 20th from 10:30 – 12:30. Plan to as Deborah Fellman, the balloon Lady; cost is $200. Be Creative at the Library is the theme. Express yourself at the library, targeting older kids. Grand finale at the downtown library in August. Debbie volunteers to coordinate Summer Reading. We will sponsor the usual crafts and bake sale. Police volunteering to paint faces.
- Sunday in the Park. July 19th, 12:00 – 4:00. We agreed to provide crafts. Laura has the pots. Carol, potting soil. Sign-up sheet for volunteers.
- 50th Anniversary. Event will be Friday July 10th. Planning committee has held two meetings. Dianne is working on the catering, Jerry on the decorating. No tickets, will use guest list instead. Will have special invitations for folks like Maxine Rogers, the original branch manager.
- Farmer's market. Clay has been asked to host a story hour. Not looking for a weekly commitment this time. We are concentrating on selling the raffle, $50 for 50th and donations.
- Landscape. Thanks to Irene, Carol, Pat for helping with the plantings. Peg needs 32 ounce bottles with caps. No more plants, but more bottles. Peg has big jugs, will water over the summer.
- Officers. Looking for a co-chair for Scott, and a replacement for Steve as Secretary.
- Next meeting, 1st Saturday in June, 6th.
